

Africa: Shape Poem

Name _____

Write a poem about Africa inside the map.

The image shows a large, simple outline of the African continent. Inside the outline, there are several horizontal lines spaced out to provide space for writing a poem. The lines are distributed across the width of the continent, following its general shape. The map includes the main continent and a small island to the southeast.